

Employment Support

NO LIMITS
Helping Young People
Help Themselves

Dedicated support for young people aged 16-25 motivated to find a job and thrive in it

At No Limits, we are passionate about helping young people build brighter futures.

The individual Placement Support (IPS) programme works closely with employers to identify suitable roles, match young people based on their strengths and interests and provide ongoing support to ensure successful, sustainable employment for both employee and employer.

What we provide

- Committed and motivated employees
- Candidates' interests, skills and experience matched to your vacant position
- An experienced employment specialist on hand to provide support to sustaining employment.

Benefits of IPS:

- A completely free service where we offer support from the recruitment stage to ongoing in-work support.
- Provision of a suitable and highly motivated employee who is equipped to succeed in the role.
- Workplace support to both the employer and the employee, tailored to ensure a successful working relationship.
- An evidence-based approach with a high rate of success of getting people into employment and sustaining it.
- Enhanced employee wellbeing, performance and promotion of an inclusive workplace - proven through studies of IPS work.
- An employee more likely to stay well, motivated and succeed at work due to role-matching and tailored support.
